Public Remarks: Known locally as the Castle House, this iconic 3,558 sq ft Laie residence was built in 2007 by a master craftsman as his personal residence, and the woodwork throughout proves it. A dramatic turret and stone veneer exterior give the home unmistakable curb presence. The main residence offers 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms across two levels. Downstairs includes a bedroom, full bath, kitchen, dining area, living room, and office. Upstairs holds four more bedrooms, including a primary suite with ensuite bath, a second living area, and a laundry room. A separate 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom unit offers built-in flexibility, whether for rental income, extended family, or a private guest suite. Steps from Hukilau Beach and minutes from BYU-Hawaii and the Polynesian Cultural Center, this North Shore setting pairs everyday convenience with a rare architectural story. Homes with this kind of custom craftsmanship and income flexibility do not come up often in Laie. Actual square footage may differ from tax records. Buyer to do their due diligence. Sale Conditions: None * Photos, History
