Public Remarks: First time on the market in four decades. A rare gem tucked away in the "Ranch Camp" neighborhood of Waialua that offers privacy and convenience minutes from Haleiwa town. This 3 bedroom, 1.5 bath house underwent a renovation in 2017 while still keeping its timeless plantation style charm. Outside you will find a lush landscaped lot spanning nearly 12,000 sq feet. On it you will find coconut trees, Tahitian lime tree, a Meyer lemon tree and a large Hayden mango tree. No need to worry about parking this home offers not one but two driveways both equipped with automatic solar gates. A detached garage offers not only laundry space, storage space, but a workshop space as well. Feel like entertaining? A spacious covered lanai offers a perfect spot for hosting gatherings or just having family bbq's. This space allows outdoor living but also keeps you protected when needed. It is truly a magical place to relax in the beauty of your own backyard. Properties like this in Waialua don't come around very often. Don't let this chance of owning a little slice of heaven on Oahu's North Shore pass you by.
